Artsworcester was being flagged as a potential sender of spam (dictionary attacks). Added DMARC record. Tweaked SPF and DKIM records. Found that Google/Gmail was still seeing it as spam. Research indicated that the PTR record was not accurate. Fixed that. Tested and re-tested. Gmail now putting Artsworcester emails in Promotions tab. Multiple attempts and research to determine that only way to fix is to have users move it from Promotions to Primary tab... until enough do, it will end up in promotions for now.
