"911" via Kimberly - Quickbooks was opening on Jenn's computer but not Kimberly's. Turned out it was not running on server (needed to be started and in multi-user). Possibly power outage or QB was quit to use in Single User mode by bookkeeper?

-------	------	-----------	--------	-----------

In person: 1015a - 130p

Kimberly has found access denied to certain Excel documents.

Jennifer cannot open PDFs in QuickBooks which is where we've attached PDFs and images of approved coded invoices to bills entered.

Strange lists of documents are appearing in HTR folders that Are not created by us and have never been there before. They look like they were created by some kind of system software

Stan and I have found that we don't get a read only message and it's allowed us to both be working apparently be working in the same document at the same time and found that our work was not saved.

Office computer no longer show HTR server 2020 From the Z drive

Some thing is filling up our Z Drive very quickly.
